SUMS SHORT-TERM TRAINING PROGRAMS

At SUMS there are a number of short-term training programs that international students have the opportunity to participate in. Short-term programs can range from 1 week to 6 months or more but tend to be less than a year. Such courses are offered predominantly all year round and are run by a range of different faculties at SUMS departments. With decades of experience hosting enthusiastic learners from around the world, SUMS can help you make the most of your short time in Iran and dive into your area of study in a whole new way. Short-term training programs offered by SUMS provide international students the opportunity to experience the most recent theoretical and practical instructions leading to gaining expertise in a specific field based on their intended area of interest. These shorter-term options are sometimes all you need to enhance your skill set or quickly react to the needs of a particular job opening or employer.

Upon request of the applicants, SUMS has also predicted plans to tailor the short-term training programs to meet the applicants' requirements and desired objectives provided that the proposed programs comply with the University's possibilities. Thus, Individuals or institutions can propose other short-term training programs based on their set of objectives or fields of interest. For more information please see our website at
